A WARM WELCOME

Dear Friends of Our Military Kids,

Our Military Kids is moving full speed ahead thanks to incredibly steadfast supporters like you! In 2022, we provided 5,434 extracurricular activity scholarships totaling $1.5 million dollars to military children and teens while their parents were deployed or recovering from post 9/11 combat injuries. Our strategic growth goals were stretched and surpassed as we logged a 33% increase in grant activity over 2021.

OMK grant recipients felt recognized and appreciated. Brains were engaged, and bodies were active. Self-confidence soared, academic success followed, and the stress of a difficult time melted away. The net positive of our work together dramatically impacts the entire family’s wellbeing and ties them more closely to their local communities. Goodness abounds in every direction for our families because you chose to invest in their children. We thank you.

Leading up to our 20th anniversary in 2024, we are focused on strategic program growth and the requisite fundraising to ensure we continue to serve every eligible child who applies for a grant. Our active engagement in National partnerships and coalitions is crucial to ensure Our Military Kids is well known in every zip code where our National Guard, Reserve, and combat injured families live, work, and play. In the pages that follow, we share stories and data we hope will clearly demonstrate the breadth and depth of our impact, and our immense gratitude to you for believing and investing in OMK’s mission.

With Gratitude,

Barry Miller

OMK WINS 2022 FISHER SERVICE AWARD

From a field of nearly 600 applicants, Our Military Kids was humbled to be a recipient of the inaugural Fisher Service Award. Presented by Fisher House Foundation and the Military Times Foundation, OMK was awarded $40,000 for extracurricular activity scholarships for eligible military children and teens, as well as more than $35,000 in pro bono digital and print media.

89% of Deployed Program families reported they were able to afford their child(ren)'s chosen activity without financial strain thanks to support from Our Military Kids.
Deployed Program Impact

“The most difficult part of being mobilized is the family separation and knowing sacrifices that the kids have to make. This program recognizes that, and the grants they offer make a big difference. My two boys, ten and seven, are taking piano lessons thanks to Our Military Kids. During our video chats, they often play for me to show me how they are progressing. It is very uplifting to know that something good came to them out of my deployment.”

Our Military Kids assesses the impact of our Deployed Program and Combat Injured Program annually through a comprehensive, reflective survey of our beneficiary families. This year, 1,150 parents provided quantitative and qualitative responses for 2,150 children and teens fully substantiating the positive effect of OMK scholarships.

91%
OF DEPLOYED PROGRAM FAMILIES REPORTED THE SERVICE MEMBER’S MORALE IMPROVED AFTER THEIR CHILD RECEIVED AN OMK EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITY GRANT.

87%
OF DEPLOYED PROGRAM FAMILIES REPORTED FEELING MORE CONNECTED TO THE MILITARY COMMUNITY, WITH 82% FEELING MORE CONNECTED TO THEIR LOCAL COMMUNITY AS A RESULT OF THE OMK-FUNDED ACTIVITY.

90%
OF DEPLOYED PROGRAM FAMILIES SHARED THAT THE OMK GRANTS MADE THEIR FAMILY FEEL APPRECIATED.
Combat Injured Program Impact

96% OF COMBAT INJURED PROGRAM FAMILIES REPORTED IMPROVEMENT IN THE WHOLE FAMILY’S WELL-BEING AFTER RECEIVING THEIR OMK SCHOLARSHIP.

95% OF CHILDREN WITH A PARENT IN TREATMENT FOR COMBAT-RELATED INJURIES OR ILLNESSES REPORTED A REDUCTION IN PSYCHOLOGICAL STRESS FOLLOWING THE OMK-FUNDED ACTIVITY.

81% OF CHILDREN WITH A PARENT IN TREATMENT FOR COMBAT-RELATED INJURIES OR ILLNESSES REPORTED ACADEMIC IMPROVEMENT AFTER THE CHILD BEGAN THE GRANT ACTIVITY.

“Financial hardship can deprive any child of the chance to explore their love of new things. The opportunities you have provided for our boys have played a huge part in their lives. Without Our Military Kids, our boys wouldn’t experience the joy of being children and experience a robotics class, Taekwondo, and multi-sports programs. To see them happy really is absolutely everything to us. Thank you all for doing what you do to provide hope and joy to our family. You all remind us that a Veteran is never forgotten.”
The National Park Trust and Our Military Kids partnered to organize five fishing adventures for OMK alumni and their parents in National Parks across the country. In 2022, we fished at Harper’s Ferry National Historic Park (WV), Rocky Mountain National Park (CO), Santa Monica Mountains Recreation Area (CA), the Canaveral National Seashore (FL), and the Mississippi River National River and Recreation Area (MN). The Park Superintendents presented an Annual Military Pass to military spouses or the Interagency Military-Annual Pass to Veterans to allow free access to more than 2,000 federal recreation areas, including national parks, wildlife refuges, and forests. Through a generous grant from the National Park Service, OMK purchased fishing equipment for the events that the families took home with them for future family fishing trips.

Hidden Helpers are the children and youth who live in homes with wounded, injured, or ill service members and Veterans. Based on census data analysis, research estimates there are approximately 2.3 million Hidden Helpers who everyday provide an unseen and unrecognized National service. Our partners at the Elizabeth Dole Foundation and Wounded Warrior Project established the Hidden Helpers Coalition in late 2021 to empower and uplift these incredible voices. Our Military Kids has been supporting caregiving kids with extracurricular activity grants since 2008 so our survey data, direct services, and voice have had an instrumental impact on the coalition. The visibility OMK gleaned as part of our work in the coalition led to a 37% increase in scholarships provided through our Combat Injured Program.
Community, Collaborations, & Partnerships

KBP BRANDS

For more than a decade, KBP Brands has been the largest investor to Our Military Kids’ one-of-a-kind extracurricular activity grant program. In 2022, the Spring and Fall Coupon Book campaigns held in 13 states raised more than $492,000, fully funding more than 1,700 OMK scholarships.

TNS GOLF TOURNAMENT

Our Military Kids was once again a beneficiary of the Transaction Network Services (TNS) annual golf tournament. On a beautiful September day at the Golf Club at Creighton Farms in Aldie, VA, OMK grant recipient Kyle Perez (16) was the honorary starter with an impressive drive from the first tee. TNS donated $50,000 of tournament proceeds to Our Military Kids.

WHITE OAK COLLABORATIVE

The White Oak Collaborative is a cross-sector coalition of organizations committed to supporting service members, Veterans, wounded warriors, caregivers, survivors, and their families. Our Military Kids support for children of the National Guard, Reserve, and combat injured service members distinguishes us among members of the Collaborative and provides numerous opportunities for us to raise awareness about our niche mission and the incredibly deserving population we serve. We feel the visibility provided by our work with the Collaborative led to our incredible 33% in program growth over 2021.
OMK’s Second Annual Courageous Kids Contest

In honor of April’s Month of the Military Child, the second annual Our Military Kids Courageous Kids Contest opened nominations for children and teens (ages 3-18) who demonstrated extraordinary courage, resilience, and strength in their local communities, within their families, at school, and in their extracurricular activities while a parent was deployed with the National Guard or Reserve or recovering from combat-related injuries in 2022.

Twelve winners were selected by a volunteer Nomination Review Committee to represent each branch of service, with the addition of OMK’s first-ever Hidden Helper Hero Award given to a military child who went above and beyond in caregiving duties for a combat-injured Veteran parent. U.S. Army National Guard Winner

ADDISON, 12

- Home State: Maryland
- Favorite Activities: Gymnastics, Cheer, Softball, and Four-Wheeler Riding
- Advice for military kids: “It’s okay to be sad, but everything will be okay. Be proud of your Mom or Dad and stay strong.”

U.S. Army Winner

THOMAS, 18

- Home State: New Hampshire
- Favorite Activity: Crew Team
- My favorite part about being a military kid: “All the different people you can meet!”

U.S. Navy Winner

AVANI, 12

- Home State: California
- Favorite Activities: Volleyball and Art
- Advice for military kids: “Keep trying and doing your best at what you want to do and pursue.”

U.S. Navy Reserve Winner

GABRIEL, 16

- Home State: Tennessee
- Favorite Activities: Frisbee, Yearbook, and Minecraft
- Advice for military kids: “It can be difficult having a parent deployed. The best way to deal with it is to find times that work for both of you to keep in touch. That way it will be over before you know it.”

U.S. Army Reserve Winners

JOHN & RANDY, 13 & 11

- Home State: Utah
- Favorite Activity: Lacrosse
- Advice for military kids: “Stay connected when you can to your military family member. Let them know what you are doing while they are gone.”

U.S. Air Force Winner

ASHELYN, 6

- Home State: Georgia
- Favorite Activity: Gymnastics
- Favorite part about being a military kid: “Sharing the pride of my family’s military service and telling others about how my family has served in all branches of the military.”

U.S. Air Force Reserve Winner

ALLAN, 18
- Home State: Missouri
- Favorite Activity: Watching Movies

My advice for other military kids: “While deployments may seem like a challenge, it presents an opportunity to demonstrate true strength toward our Nation and yourself. By allowing yourself to be brave through the parent-less nights while they serve, it shows that you are also a hero.”

U.S. Marine Corps Winner Winner

HALEY, 15
- Home State: California
- Favorite Activities: Cheerleading, Soccer, and Singing
- Favorite part about being a military kid: “Knowing my dad is a hero and being able to share his stories.”

U.S. Marine Corps Reserve Winner

DAMIEN, 10
- Home State: Texas
- Favorite Activity: Soccer
- My advice for other military kids: “Enjoy every moment. Try not to look at all the negatives and see the adventure that every event or place has to offer!”

U.S. Coast Guard Reserve Winner

CONNOR, 15
- Home State: Florida
- Favorite Activity: Basketball
- Favorite part about being a military kid: “I am proud to have a dad that is helping our country and is willing to make sacrifices so I can have a better life.”

Hidden Helper Hero Award Winner

AZARA, 11
- Home State: Virginia
- Favorite Activities: Track, Violin, and Family Time

My advice for other Hidden Helper military kids: “Don’t try to hide the pain and struggle. Share it with your parents and people you feel comfortable with. Most importantly, remember you are not alone.”

U.S. Air National Guard Winner

WYATT, 10
- Home State: Ohio
- Favorite Activity: Golf
- Favorite part about being a military kid: “Knowing my dad helps a lot of people and that I can also help my dad and other people when he is gone. It is an adventure for both of us.”

My advice for other Hidden Helper military kids: “Don’t try to hide the pain and struggle. Share it with your parents and people you feel comfortable with. Most importantly, remember you are not alone.”
DC BRITISH RELIABILITY RUN

Hurricane Ian didn’t stop the annual DC British Reliability Run (DCBRR) from raising more than $50,000 for Our Military Kids! Held in rural Virginia each fall, the event brings together antique British car enthusiasts for a weekend of fun and camaraderie, with all proceeds going to Our Military Kids.

SHARE YOUR THANKS CAMPAIGN

In the first full year of OMK’s Share Your Thanks volunteer campaign, employees at partner companies and foundations created hundreds of handwritten thank you cards for military children and teens, which were included in each “Top Secret” grant award packet mailed out to every OMK grant recipient.

2022 CONGRESSIONAL FOOTBALL GAME

This year’s Congressional Football Game for Charity kicked off on September 21 at Audi Field in Washington, D.C. Members of the U.S. Capitol Police faced off in friendly competition against Members of Congress and former NFL players to raise funds and awareness for charities including Our Military Kids.
